"How she remembered everything we talked about and everything I asked for. And the amount of material she sent for ALL my needs."

"TA was quick to respond, and very willing to help secure the information we needed."

"The staff were very knowledgeable and helpful. I would also recommend NRCDDV to anyone searching for more information about DV as well."

"I really appreciate the time [NRCDDV staff] took with me to help me understand more about the resources available and the problem of DV in general. Very well pleased with the entire company. Thank you!"

"I look forward to working with them in the future. They presented themselves so well and showed that they are serious about what they are doing. Impressive."

"I had another client who came to me stating she was experiencing dv. I took what I learned and applied it to my response as appropriate for her particular situation. Thankfully she was eventually able to use that information to obtain safety."

"It enhances the information I provide to individuals who seek my help when filing for Civil Protection Orders."

"I responded with a lot more support, especially when my clients choose not to use 'the system.' I had a more accurate understanding of its advantages and faults. I'm also able to respond better to questions other clients have about dv when they ask about it. I try to encourage them to seek you guys out as well for your information and resources."

"I was satisfied with how concise and to-the-point the training was. The facts that were provided were relevant to the purpose of the training."

"I appreciated the quality of information presented and the closed captions."

"This presentation was the right level of insightful and reflective."

"Very thorough and professionally conducted."

"The trainings are informative and data is current."

"Easy to access and very helpful info."

"This was a fabulous, inclusive webinar. Thank you."

"Other than years of counseling, at the moment, the NRCDV trainings are one of the few support systems I have in acknowledging and sharing my DV story."

"This training opened my eyes to the injustice females endure."

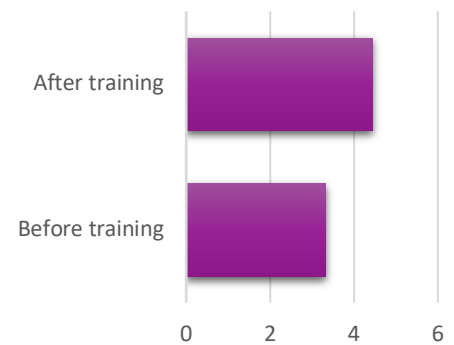

"Unique topics. Quality speakers."

"This training helped highlight an important part of healing work: to acknowledge both positive and negative aspects of others and our experiences and to shift focus from past to present to a hopeful future."

"The information shared helped me to connect with victims on another level."

WERE YOU ABLE TO APPLY THE KNOWLEDGE/TOOLS GAINED TO YOUR DAILY WORK?

"I work with youth and never thought about focusing on resilience or knew how. I feel this training gave me an entire new skillset and cannot wait to share with my fellow advocates at my agency!"

"It has given me more confidence to move forward."

"Sharing my story is a new outlet for me."

"I hope to have a mini training event for the #1thing and pledge signing at an upcoming event and then display pledges in the office."

"In my program we just added the assessment tool called HITS. This training adds strength and support for working with clients that experience IPV/DV."

"I love this campaign and plan to implement it as part of my DVAM campus materials."

"I will be able to work with fathers who have been victims of DV themselves as a child or young teen."

"We'll definitely utilize the info re: policy in our day-to-day work."

"See where the victim is with the situation instead of what I think is right for them to do."

"I now have a new idea and tool to implement into my presentations, training, advocacy work and more."

"I work with lots of at-risk victims of sexual assault. I was able to relay some of the information to them as a different perspective. They in turn used the information as a prevention method for their own lives."

"I work with youth who have been abused and some have been to prison. It helped me work with them and think about how to offer skills that will help them in the future."

"I am a consultant and will often share exceptional webinars with agencies I represent and advocate for recommendations to be incorporated or advance current practices."
